Cigarette Box - Desny

More is known about Desny's work than his personal life. What is known is that during the 1920's and 1930's he had a shop in Paris where he sold lamps and tableware of a very special stylistic character. The question of the copyright or of who the designer was is not always clear, as the label from Desny's shop did not necessarily mean that he designed the article he sold. The rectangular tobacco box and the lid are made of sterling silver, the cylindrical shaped handle on the lid is gold plated.
